

Coping Mask

Coping Mask is a fast, brush on coating for the protection of decorative rock and/or non-porous surfaces such as plastic or aluminum coping during the concrete pour.

- Eliminates, in some instances, the use of paper or plastic coverings.
- Stops the bonding of cement to surfaces without damaging the surrounding areas.
- Applies easily with a large paint brush.
- Removes quickly with a stiff bristled brush and water from a garden hose.